

That Scandalous Tennis Entertainment Sure Some Jamboree!

ELM HALL WAS PACKED TO THE DOORS AND EVERYBODY IN TOWN CAME IN FOR MORE OR LESS "HONORABLE MENTION"

"Hilarious but perfectly respectable" is what the press agent promised, but who believes a press agent? Hilarious it was, but riotous would have been the better word. As for being respectable—well, that depends on the viewpoint!

Why, do you know that right there in full view of all the dollar tens—about 400 of them—a man in whom the voting public has reposed sufficient confidence to elect to the dignified, lucrative and much-sought-after office of School Director—a man from whom the proletariat is entitled to expect a certain amount of dignity and to whom it should be able to point as an example for its children to emulate—yes, that man, and it pains us to mention his name even more than it pained the audience to listen to his fiddling, to say nothing of his singing, Walter Heifetz Kreiser Shaw, danced up and down the stage in Elm Hall on Friday evening, the 12th, and in loud, crow-like tones, accompanied by the waving aloft of an article of woman's apparel, sang what many of our most well-bred folks would undoubtedly characterize as a low-brow ditty, entitled "Spirola," which was, of course, a burlesque on that beautiful classic, "Dardanella." Even though the well-known brown pants were invisible, W. H. K. Shaw was recognized at once despite his disguise. Incidentally, we wish to remark that just because the President of the School Board, in a fit of anger the other day, threw his alarm clock out of the window, is hardly an excuse for such behavior on the part of other directors!

"You'd Be Surprised" All Right!

But this conscientious report of the doings at the Narberth Tennis Association's entertainment must be truthful if nothing else, so we take our life in our hands and proceed. Everybody was there, including all our best-known citizens, many of whom sat through periods of intense mortification! For instance, the fair name of our fellow citizen and statesman, the Hon. Carl Metzger, member of Council from Swamp Hollow, was brought in, the statement being made that he had a cellar full of something besides coal. Such indiscretion cannot be condoned, because from now on all traffic, we fear, will be diverted to Narberth's Fifth Ward. Even the President of Councils, the Honorable Alphabet Hall, did not escape vilification, he being charged with running a distillery in his home!

The moment the curtain rose, Doc Hartley, the tooth-plugger of Forest avenue, made up as a college boy, rendered, or rather "rended," a song which was a scandalous travesty on "You'd Be Surprised." There wasn't any doubt about the audience being surprised when they heard some of the things that Doc Hartley told them in his confidential manner. And say, if George M. Cohan knew the way Wayne Harris can dance—believe us, it wouldn't be long before Wayne would be one of George's Broadway stars.

Before the evening was over, everybody who is anybody came in for more or less honorable mention. Hank Rose, the only original Dablia King, steel maggot and what-not, especially the latter, and a most estimable citizen, was described as a poor fish of a tennis player, and also a retriever of lost tennis balls, from which it was hinted he derived a profit. Hank, being interviewed on the subject, said that when a ball came into his yard there was little danger of its becoming the owner, since the tennis players were such hard-boiled eggs that they would stop a game for a week rather than lose a ball. Another man flung at Hank was the intimation that he was no Adonis—a rather unkind cut in view of the fact that one of his most cherished traditions is that he is a very ornamental as well as useful citizen.

Even our famous editor, Dana Greeley Jacobs, was not permitted to go unscathed, he being alluded to as a man with an exceedingly high forehead, who had amassed a fortune on the money he had saved on hair-cuts. Undoubtedly "those mentioned" felt that it was a pity that so much high-class talent was wasted on so coarse a spectacle!

Oh! That Sewing Circle!

"Sister Susie's Sewing Circle"—more dead-end even than Goldberg's famous "Tuesday Ladies' Club"—was a happy little affair that featured a happy big affair in the person of Albert Stephenson, the Pappy Arbuckle of Narberth's Smart Set, as "Mrs. T. Drinker," a lady of vigorous views and biceps and with a voice reminding us of De Wolf Hopper. Al made a great hit with his feminine make-up, as did all the other ladies in the circle, and he required no upholstery. Neill Burgess had nothing on Alie. In this sketch, the ladies of the circle—and right here we wish to make special mention of "Jessica" Harris and "Hallie" Fenno—in addition to sewing and chatting about the gossip of the town, were sipping tea, which, judging from the presence of a black bottle on the tea wagon, was of a somewhat more interesting nature than just ordinary everyday tea. Roy Williams, the red-headed net-buster, displayed rather unusual interest in that bottle, and after the curtain fell, he lost little time rushing to the property room for the purpose of making an investigation.

Ed Muschamp and Thorny Grugan, as black-faced comedians, were decidedly clever, in fact, too d—n clever in the opinion of some of the law-abid-

The Presbyterian Holy Week Services

"Why I Am Glad I Stopped Getting Rich" is to be the theme of Mr. George Innes' address at the Holy Week services at the Presbyterian Church. He is a leading business man of Philadelphia and is still making money, but not "getting rich." He will make this address if the Interchurch World Movement, with which he is working, does not send him to some distant point to speak during Holy Week.

Others on the programme are Dr. David S. Kennedy, editor of the "Presbyterian," a modern champion of the "old-time religion;" Rev. Henry W. Frost, director for North America of the China Inland Mission; Mrs. A. W. Karnell, of the International Sunday School Association, and Dr. W. B. Anderson, missionary secretary of the United Presbyterian Board.

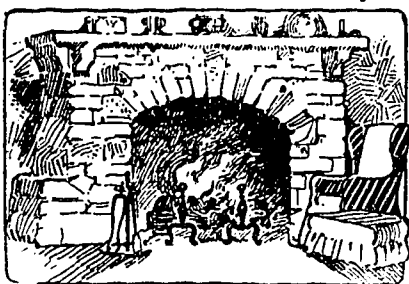

There will be one address each night, with special music. Everyone is cordially invited to come.

Cottage Prayer Meetings

In preparation for the Holy Week evangelistic meetings at the Narberth Presbyterian Church, special cottage prayer meetings will be held next week. Meetings will be held on both north and south sides of the town, for the convenience of the folks attending.

On Tuesday evening, March 2, at 8 P. M., meeting on south side will be held at the home of Mr. J. K. Lessey, 207 Merion Avenue. Mr. A. G. Compton will lead the meeting. On the same evening a meeting on the north side will be held at the home of Mr. A. G. Compton, 198 Woodbine Avenue. Mr. Dripps will lead the meeting.

On Thursday evening, March 25, at 8 P. M., meeting on south side will be held at the home of Mr. E. U. Smith, 200 South Narberth Avenue. Mr. W. J. Peebles will lead the meeting. On the same evening a meeting will be held on the north side at the home of Mr. C. M. McCracken, 113 Narberth Avenue, with Mr. J. K. Lessey leading. Everyone will be welcomed at these meetings.

THE FIRESIDE

Miss Maizie Simpson is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Cole, Brattleboro, Vermont.

Remember the Community Club Card Party on Saturday evening, April 10th, one of the biggest events of the season.

$3.00 per year is the cost to you in being a sustaining member of the Narberth Fire Company.

Do not fail to hear J. Fithian Tatem, Esq., speak at the American Legion on March 26th in Elm Hall.

Have you renewed your membership in the Narberth Civic Association? Cost of a year's membership is $1.00.

William S. Maddox, of Woodside avenue, Narberth, has just returned from a four weeks' trip to Havana, Cuba Beach and other Southern resorts.

Have you read "The Object of the Narberth Civic Association?" It is printed from time to time in the columns of this paper, and should be read—and read again.

Mrs. Vincent Cunningham, of Dudley avenue, Narberth, returned home on Monday, having spent a few days in New York City visiting her sister, Mrs. Philip James, wife of the composer.

The Harold D. Speakman Post, 356, American Legion, Narberth, Pa., extends a general invitation to come and hear J. Fithian Tatem, Esq., of Had-donfield, N. J., in Elm Hall on March 26th.

Everyone invited to Civic Association meeting in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Friday evening, March 26. Moving pictures, lantern slides and two very interesting talks to accompany them on subjects in which Narberthites are interested.

The engagement of Miss Grace Elizabeth Stillwagon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Stillwagon, of Ardmore, to Dr. Lawrence Ross Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Davis, of Narberth, was recently announced.

Notice elsewhere in this issue regarding the debate to be held by the Woman's Club of Cynwyd is worthy of special attention, and there is no doubt but that our Community Club members and other Narberth folks will be greatly interested in this debate.

Charles Higgins, professional cheerer and player of Philadelphia, will play "all comers" from Main Line towns at the Ardmore Y. M. C. A. Monday evening, March 22nd, at 8.15. Persons wishing to enter the contest will kindly apply to the Secretary of either the Y. M. C. A. at Ardmore or Narberth.

Mrs. Robert Ross, of Elm terrace, Narberth, entertained her bridge club on Wednesday afternoon. The following members were present: Mrs. Wilmer Crowell, Mrs. Frank Baer, Mrs. John DuBree, Mrs. James McKell, Mrs. William H. Creamer, Jr., and Miss Marie Quinn.

Mrs. Ronald Toughill, of Rockland and Narberth avenue, Merion, entertained her sewing club on Tuesday afternoon. The following members were present: Miss Linda Kirk, Miss Mar-

Second Call for Rummage

The Women's Auxiliary of the Narberth Y. M. C. A. acknowledge with many thanks receipt of several boxes of rummage.

The next sale will be held during the second week of April, and in the interim donations of any kind will be greatly appreciated, and boxes, packages, etc., will be called for whenever it suits your convenience, if you will kindly "phone word to Narberth 1611W, 623R or 1649W.

Nothing is too old to find a purchaser if it is clean. Second-hand clothing, shoes, china, cooking utensils, furniture, etc., are very popular sellers.

A Delightful Musicales

Last Tuesday evening a musicale was given in the Methodist Church under the auspices of the Women's Home Missionary Society, and talent of great ability and charm gave an inspiring program. Miss Ebba Sjöholm, Mrs. T. O. Lane and Mr. Robert Hoffman were the piano soloists. Mrs. J. G. Foote and Lt. Henry Spares gave delightful solos. A charming violin duet by Miss Mary Gibbons and Miss Ann Barclay, and some selections by the Women's Sextette, composed of Mrs. H. Hoffman, Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Barclay, Mrs. Stanley and Mrs. Staples, rendered beautiful selections. Miss Alice Fricke gave several readings, including a wonderful one from Dickens, and Mr. John Bradway, of Haverford, gave some clever and tragic readings in a matchless way. The offering was for the Deaconess' Home in Philadelphia and everybody present was delighted and felt deep gratitude to Mrs. Miller Burkhardt and Mrs. Walker Owen for securing this ideal talent.

Community Club Notes

At the next meeting of the Community Club on Tuesday, March 23, the speaker will be Mrs. George E. Bean, of Cynwyd, who will give a talk on current events.

At each meeting of the club a silver collection will be taken up for the benefit of the Near East Relief Fund. The club hopes to raise in this way at least sixty dollars, which is sufficient to support an Armenian child for a year. Mrs. Edgar Taylor will be the hostess of the afternoon.

Card Party.

The Community Club is planning a card party on Saturday, April 10, at eight o'clock, in Elm Hall, commonly known as the Fire House.

There will be prizes and refreshments and candy and peanuts will be sold. It is hoped that every member of the club will bring her husband, if she has one, and as many friends as she can. There will be tables for five hundred and other games as well as bridge, so that everyone may play his favorite game. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the club.

NARBERTH WILL PROBABLY BE FORCED TO ABANDON PLAN FOR DAYLIGHT SAVING.

It will probably be necessary for our Borough Council to repeal the ordinance providing for daylight saving, which was to have gone into effect on March 28. This action, if taken, will not be because the extra hour of daylight that we had hoped to get, is any the less desirable than it was last week or week before.

But Narberth's plan for daylight saving was made, necessarily, contingent upon Philadelphia adopting the plan. Since the Daylight Saving Ordinance was passed by Philadelphia City Council, it has been discovered that the local ordinance violates a State law, which fixes standard Eastern time for the State of Pennsylvania. So unless Congress passes a new daylight-saving law for the whole country, Philadelphia, Narberth and other Pennsylvania towns will have to abandon the plan.

But ordinance or no ordinance, there is no reason why anyone who wants to, can't get up an hour earlier, quit work an hour earlier—providing the boss is on your side and approving—get home earlier and put in an extra hour on the garden, the tennis courts, or the golf course.

If the Philadelphia Council repeals its ordinance, our Narberth Council will be called in special session and our local daylight-saving ordinance repealed.

Be Sure and Come to the Big Meeting Next Friday Eve.

VICTOR D. ABEL, THE WELL-KNOWN ARCHITECT, WILL SPEAK ON "THE TOWN BEAUTIFUL"—MR. WOHLERT TO TALK ON FLOWERS AND GARDENS—SINGING BY THE COMMUNITY CHORUS.

It is necessary to announce a change in the program of the annual meeting of the Narberth Civic Association, which will be held in the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A., March 26—that is, next Friday evening.

Mr. John Irwin Bright, the noted architect, who was to have spoken, has been ill, and has been ordered away by his physician.

In Mr. Bright's place the Civic Association has been fortunate in securing as a speaker, Mr. Victor D. Abel, one of our own citizens and a resident of Narbrook Park. Mr. Abel is a well-known architect, being associated with D. Knickerbocker Boyd, and is also supervising architect for Narbrook Park. Moreover, Mr. Abel has been closely associated with Mr. Bright in his work, and in addition to assisting in drawing up the Lower Merion Building Code, he was, throughout the war, connected with the Housing Division of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, and had an important part in developing the Yorkship housing. Several of Mr. Abel's articles on housing were recently published in the "Ladies' Home Journal," and we know that his talks next Friday evening on the subject, "The Town Beautiful," will be not only interesting, but very instructive; if will be illustrated with lantern slides.

Mr. A. E. Wohlert's talk will also be not only interesting, but very timely, and he may be counted on to tell us many things that will be helpful in making our gardens more attractive and artistic this summer.

The meeting is called for eight o'clock, and every citizen of the town is welcome. The only business to be transacted will be the annual election of officers of the Civic Association, and it is hoped that a large number of our residents will be on hand.

A special feature has been arranged which will interest many of our readers. The Community Chorus, of the Women's Community Club, will be present and sing several attractive numbers.

PLANT COMMITTEE NAMED.

H. R. Hillegas, George O. Smith and John B. Alker have been named a tree planting committee by President Nash, of the Narberth Civic Association, to continue the work started by the original committee two years ago in planting memorial trees for veterans of the world war.

Editorial

Extensive plans are now being made for the first dahlia show of the Narberth Civic Association, to be held Saturday, September 25. In last week's issue an interesting article appeared in respect to the planting of dahlias and preparation of the soil. In the near future we will give details regarding the rules, various exhibits and other things regarding this show.

The Baby Clinic at the Ardmore headquarters is held on Tuesdays and Fridays from 2 to 3 o'clock. Since the opening of the clinic the weather conditions have been very bad, but in spite of this, sixteen children from ten families have been cared for by the clinic. The aim of this clinic is "well babies." Readers of this paper are asked to spread the news of this clinic that its usefulness may be increased.

MY GARDEN.

When Spring comes smiling through the wood

I love to take my trusty hoe
And in a mild, Arcadian mood
Go out and make my garden grow.
No finer outdoor sport I know.
Nor one that offers greater wealth.
A calm content it does bestow,
And that rare fruit of perfect health.

A partnership with the Divine
I feel in all I plant or sow.
The cure and delving must be mine
And God will make the flowers grow
And fruits to ripen in the row.
But more than Nature's kind increase

IT CAN DO SO MANY THINGS

Pretty nearly every worthy project requiring money can be accomplished by life insurance of the kind I offer—no end of possible and profitable arrangements. Utilize the chance for a noble deed, a generous act, and yet not strap yourself in the process. Consultations in confidence.

LANAHAN, 205 Forest Avenue
P. O. Box 352. Phone, Narberth 3-44 R.

From out my happy labors flow;
More than all that, heart-ease and peace.

Too oft in barter and in trade
Our gain another's loss must show.
But what is in my garden made
Is never through my brother's woe.
I feel the kind and easy glow
Of one whose time is wisely spent;
Like busy bees the hours go
To bring the honey of content.

L'envoi.

My garden, unto you I owe
My spirit's wider range and scope
That causes in my heart to grow
A higher faith, a nobler hope.

RED CROSS REPORT FOR JANUARY AND FEBRUARY.

During January and February the Home Service Section of the Red Cross had 22 new applications for assistance from families of soldiers and sailors, six cases were reopened and thirty-seven closed. There are now one hundred and six families directly in the care of the Home Service.

During this time the Disaster Committee became actively engaged, on account of the number of influenza cases, with a threatened epidemic in the community. Miss Caroline Lee, with the help of several volunteers, took charge of the work.

The bad weather made it difficult to go about. Private motors were loaned for much of this work, as the Main Line motor messengers have discontinued service.

Following is the report for the Disaster Committee:—

Number of emergency telephone calls, 290; number of emergency visits, 12; number cases reported to office, 23; number practical nurses secured for families, 7; number trained nurses secured for families, 3; number nurses' aides secured, 3; number cases referred to visiting nurses, 8.

MAIN LINE CITIZENS TO MEET.

J. Horace McFarland, of Harrisburg, president of the American Civic Association, will be the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the Main Line Citizens' Association, which is to be held March 25 at the Ardmore Woman's Club. The subject of the meeting, of course, will be the housing situation. On Monday the officers and directors of the association will meet at the Merion Cricket Club at 5.15 P. M.

AN ADDRESS ON AFTER-WAR CONDITIONS ABROAD.

An evening of rare interest is promised all who attend the meeting of Harold D. Speakman Post, 356, American Legion, at Elm Hall, next Friday, March 26, at 8 o'clock. Mr. J. Pithian Tatem, of Haddonfield, N. J., who recently returned from an extensive tour of the battlefields of Europe, will speak on "Present Day Conditions in France and Belgium." Mr. Tatem is an experienced traveler, an excellent speaker, and a man of wide knowledge of world conditions. Don't miss his vivid description of the devastated battlefields and the work being done to restore them.

MAIN LINE FLOWER GROWERS GET PRIZES.

Main Line floriculturists won four of five prizes awarded this week at the monthly flower exhibition of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society. The exhibition was held in connection with the society's meeting in the New Century Club.

The awards were made to Mrs. J. Leslie Davis, Haverford, for best specimen of rose; Mrs. D. S. Ellis, Bryn Mawr, for best tulip and mixed flowers exhibit; A. B. Johnson, Rosemont, for best lily, Cineraria stellata and stocks specimens; Dr. R. V. Mattison, Ambler, for best carnations, and Mr. Bodine, of Bryn Mawr, for the finest schizanthus.

An illustrated lecture on "Herbaceous Perennials and Bulbous Plants," by E. L. Wilde, assistant professor of floriculture at the Pennsylvania State College, preceded the award of the prizes.

PALACE THEATRE, ARDMORE, PA.

Program week Monday, March 22: Monday, Alice Brady in "The Fear Market;" Tuesday, Dorothy Dalton, "L'Apache;" Wednesday, strong mystery drama, "The Oakdale Affair;" Thursday, all-star production, Lew Cody in "The Beloved Cheater;" Friday, "The Devil's Trail;" Saturday, the girl who made "Mickey," Mabel Normand in "Pinto." Mutt and Jeff. Pretzel Farming.

School taxes for Lower Merion Township must be increased two mills, according to officials of the Board of Education at last Wednesday night's monthly meeting, if increased expenses of operation are to be met and the teachers, many of whom are leaving for better jobs, are to be retained by higher salaries. This would make the tax rate 12 mills.

J. Harmon Wilson, for four years a member of the Lower Merion School Board, presented his resignation last Wednesday night, to take effect on Monday. Mrs. J. C. Sellers, Jr., of Merion, was elected for Mr. Wilson's unexpired term by the Board at the same meeting. This makes Lower Merion the first Main Line school district to have a woman school director—following the example of Philadelphia, where Mrs. William E. Linebach was recently appointed a member of the Board of Education. Mrs. Sellers is a prominent resident of Merion, and has taken an interest in educational matters of a local character. She has several children who attend the Cynwyd Public School.

He was converted through Bishop Thoburn, of the Methodist Missions of India, and has finished his education in America at Ohio Wesleyan University, Harvard, and his medical course at Columbia University. He is going back to India this September. All are welcome to hear this remarkable man.
3 P. M.—Children's Church with vested choir. Mr. Chalker, of Narberth, will give one of his celebrated talks. Last Sunday the Children's church presented the pastor and his wife with a beautiful upholstered wicker rocking chair and also a small chair to the little daughter.
7 P. M.—Epworth League. A live meeting for young people.
7.45 P. M.—Evening service. Song service by the choir. Either the pastor or some special speaker will preach. All are welcome.
The Annual Conference began last Wednesday in the Wharton Memorial Church in West Philadelphia, and the pastor took $3,521 as the benevolent offering from the church for the year for missions and other benevolent causes of our Church. Last year the amount was $1,985, and so this shows an increase of $1,536, a very remarkable showing.

NARBERTH HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETIC NOTES.

The Narberth boys defeated the Villanova Prep. basketball team after a very hard-fought game by the score of 25-20. At the end of the first half Villanova had our boys by the score of 14-13, with three of our best men—Dickie, Cooke and Ward—out of the game. But the team came back strong in the second half and defeated Villanova, which is one of the strongest teams on the Main Line.
Line-up was as follows:—

NARBERTH.	VILLANOVA.
Dickie	Emerton
Jenkins	Harkins
Harsch	Pickett
Cooke	Henneberger
M. Dickie	Crowley

Field Goals—Dickie 2, Jenkins 4, Harsch 1, Cooke 1, M. Dickie 1, Emerton 2, Pickett 2, Henneberger 3. Foul Goals—Dickie 5 out of 6.
Substitutes—Faile for Dickie and Hovenstein for Cooke; Hyman for Harkins and King for Crowley. Time—20-minute halves. Referee—Emery.

Benefit Musicale

The musical held in the Narberth Methodist Church on Tuesday evening, March 16th, was one of the most delightful affairs ever given in Narberth. Those who remained at home on account of the inclement weather missed a rare treat. The rostrum was decorated beautifully with exquisite lamps and palms to enhance the living room effect.
Especial mention must be made of the piano numbers of Miss Sjöholm, Mr. Robert Hoffman and Mrs. T. O. Lane. The vocal numbers by Mrs. Sparks and Mrs. James Foote and Women's Sextette were fine. Miss Anne Barclay and Miss Mary Fulton Gibbons gave several fine numbers on violin. The reading in dialect by Miss Alice Prieke, of Swarthmore, and Mr. John Bradway, of Haverford, more than pleased the audience, each one having to respond to several encores.
We of the Home Missionary Society

wish to again thank all who helped to make such an efficient program for such a worthy cause.

THAT SCANDALOUS REVUE.

ing citizens they reviled. Aside from what they said about some of our friends, we don't mind saying that we have seen worse at two bones the ticket.

The next act was entitled "The Graduate Burglars," and pictured Bob Pattison, boy father and suspender peddler, paired with Jim Donnelly, ex-Secretary of Nutty Row, as house-breakers, who on ransacking a house found so little worth taking that they decided on the spot to change their profession to that of house-building; and their plans for building houses, as revealed to the audience, were of such a distressing character that we hesitate to give them any further publicity lest some unscrupulous fellow come along and actually put those plans into effect.

"Mlle. de Flannigan's Wild Animals," under that fearless trainer, Prof. George Tompkins, was indeed appropriately named, but just who the artists were it was impossible to determine, except that the reporter was sure that it would take more than a lion's skin to hide the identification marks of a certain school director's legs.

One number on the program, that seemed to have wandered a long distance from home to find its way into this scandalous burlesque, was the highly refined and polished number presented by Mr. James F. Donnelly (this is his Sunday name), consisting of readings and living pictures from Stevenson, Riley and Field. These were thoroughly enjoyable and Mr. Donnelly's work became even more interesting when one realized that so capable, cultured and handsome an artist was also capable of "stooping so low" that he could take upon his shoulders the responsibility for the entire scandalous entertainment! For Mr. Donnelly was the man to whom credit should be given for the entire performance.

Ah! But That Was Real Art!

A concluding number was called "An Elite Esthetic Terpsichorean Exhibition," the culprits being Thorny Gragan, Narberth's Charley Chaplin, dressed as Eve, but rather in accordance with Anthony Comstock's ideas, however, and Al Stephenson rigged up as Adam, or to be more explicit, he was clad as most of us will have to be in the future if the price of clothing continues to pursue a rising tendency. Two versatile performers, these, Thorny's dance was a hummer, and as for his partner, one cannot but wish that he could play tennis half so well as he can entertain.

Did space permit, we would be delighted to mention the names and achievements of all the participants in the evening's carousal. Briefly but sincerely we shall say that everyone taking part measured up to his job, and so far as we know, there has never been an entertainment the equal of it in this village. Even Jim Foote, the property man, scene shifter, etc., did wonderful work, if only in that he is the only one who was ever known to make that curtain operate properly.

It is our duty as a faithful courier of the news to record the fact that as scandalous as the entertainment was, the audience did not leave the hall until the curtain descended on the final number—and even then, most of them stayed until the orchestra quit playing dance music. All of which, we regret to say, indicates the rather depraved depths to which an otherwise refined and cultured audience had fallen!

TEN REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND THE AMERICAN LEGION DANCE.

1. Our Legion Post needs your support.
2. We want to become acquainted with the folks who helped while we were "over there."
3. Help us promote 100% Americanism.
4. The only 100% investment on the market.
5. Narberth folks can become better acquainted with their new neighbors at our dance.
6. With water on the side.
7. To recuperate from the "flu"—dance with us.
8. There is more to Narberth than the S.29 to Philadelphia and the 5.40 out.
9. $20.00 worth of enjoyment for $2.00.
10. Only two more left.

CAN YOU IRON TISSUE PAPER?

IT IS A DELICATE TEST OF IRONING EFFICIENCY—a shade too much heat will scorch the paper; a bit too much pressure will tear it.

Yet tissue paper is ironed daintily and with the utmost safety in our flatwork ironers and special presses.

It is done without any special adjustments or elaborate preparations—it is one of the things that illustrate the fineness of our everyday ironing methods. These are the methods we employ in the ironing of all the work you send us.

They are typical of our laundering processes all the way through—processes that are the highest development of modern laundering science.

Why permit washday to be a worry? Why fret over the vexing question of laundresses? The easy and the modern way, is to make your washing into a bundle and phone us. We will have our representative call.

High Costs and Low-

THE cost of living is not a popular subject!

But here's a thought that cannot be sidetracked.

With the war over, telephone rates reverted to the pre-war figures.

A welcomed contribution to the solution of America's biggest problem,
no doubt!

But unfortunately our costs for labor and materials have not likewise gone back to what they were before the war.

We would be in the position of a most willing contributor to the happiness of 1920 were it not that we're between the millstones.

It is a very serious situation! No one likes to complain—but we'd be mighty poor stewards for the public in the administration of one of their most vital services if we did not put the matter squarely before them.

We must have rates that will give us money enough to pay our bills for equipment and materials, assure our employees adequate wages, improve and extend the service, and permit the owners of the property to earn a decent return upon their investment.

The service must be kept going and adequate rates are the only remedy for the situation.
